

TRANSCRIPT: Family life: Housing

Simon, Harvey's father

We did have to move house and that was a huge, huge decision in our life and it was one that wasn't taken voluntarily. It was suggested to us very firmly over a period of two years, that Harvey couldn't continue to live in our little two up, two down, which we absolutely loved, and didn't want to move from and didn't want to sell. So we've bought the big double fronted that now allows Harvey to live on the left-hand side, and it's enabled us to create a special needs bathroom. However, the mortgage is absolutely huge and we'll be working until the year 3000 to pay it off... probably.
